

AUTOMOBILE, TRUCKING AND TRANSPORTATION LIABILITY DEFENSE

Commercial trucking and automobile accidents can be a significant liability for companies and their insurers. The attorneys at Billing, Cochran, Lyles, Mauro & Ramsey have extensive experience in handling liability claims on behalf of companies, drivers and liability insurers in the transportation industry including motor carriers and commercial motor vehicle operators involved in accidents with other motorists.

We are well versed in the rules governing the trucking industry including:

- Driver qualifications, training, hiring and licensing
- Vehicle maintenance and documentation
- Driving rules and regulations
- Truck weight restrictions
- Drug and alcohol testing

Our attorneys, together with our on-staff nurse consultants and litigation paralegals, can quickly review a case, to determine the course of action needed for a successful defense claim.
